

AGENDA

Tuesday, 17 September 2019

Duration	Session	Facilitator
08.30 – 09.00	Registration	UNESCO Ministry of Education and Culture (MoEC)
09.00 - 09.30	Welcoming Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • UNESCO Jakarta • Director of Cultural Heritage and Diplomacy, Ministry of Education an Culture, Government of Indonesia • Director General of Culture, Ministry of Education an Culture, Government of Indonesia • Embassy of Sweden 	UNESCO
09.30 – 09.40	Zapin Betawi Dance Performance	MoEC
09:30 - 10:30	Introduction to the workshop / Introduction to the expert Self-introduction by participants  Introduction to the 2005 Convention Agenda 2030 for sustainable development (articles 4, 5, 8, 10, 16, 17)	UNESCO
10:30 - 10:45	Tea or coffee break
10:45 - 11:45	Q&A session on Indonesia's first and next QPR Challenges in preparing the chapter on media diversity Moderator: Charles Vallerand, UNESCO Expert Speakers: National team members / 2015 QPR workshop participants	Member of QPR national team
11:45 - 12:30	Best practices and examples on media diversity in other QPRs	Charles Vallerand
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 15:00	Global Report : Review of issues in the 2015 and 2018	Workshops
15:00 -15:15	Tea or coffee
15:15 - 16:15	Plenary
16:15 - 16:55	Introducing the 2020 Global Report and revised QPR form	Charles Vallerand
16:55 - 17:00	Presenting the programme of day 2	UNESCO

Wednesday 18 September 2019

Duration	Session	Facilitator
08.30 – 09.00	Registration for new-comers	UNESCO MoEC
09.00 - 09.30	Self-introduction by new participants Presentation of the day's program and objectives Recap of the previous day: feedback from participants	UNESCO
9:30 - 10:30	Creative vs. cultural industries The value chain	Charles Vallerand
10:30 - 10:45	Tea or coffee break
10:45 - 11:45	Defining media diversity in the digital age	Charles Vallerand
11.45 – 12.00	Lenong and Silat Betawi	MoEC
12.00 - 13:00	Lunch
13.00 – 13.15	Challenges and opportunities in the media in Indonesia Trend in Media Content in Private, Community-based, and Government Media	Masduki, Department of Communications Universitas Islam Indonesia
13:15 - 13:30	Challenges and opportunities for diversity in the media in Indonesia Self-regulation by broadcasters, Over-the-top (OTT) and social media	Klara Esti, Centre for Innovation Policy and Governance
13:30 - 13:45	Challenges and opportunities in the media in Indonesia Globalization in Broadcasting World	Mulyo Hadi Purnomo, Indonesian Broadcasting Commission
13:45 -14:00	Challenges and opportunities in the media in Indonesia Reforming the Broadcast Law	R. Kristiawan , National Advisor for International Media Support of Denmark
14:00 - 14:15	Tea or coffee break
14:15 – 15.45	Panel discussion between the three presenters Representing National Diversity in a Globalized World Moderator : Charles Vallerand
15:45 - 16:00	Presenting the programme of day 3	UNESCO

Thursday, 19 September 2019

Duration	Session	Facilitator
08.30 – 09.00	Registration for new-comers	UNESCO MoEC
09.00 - 09.30	Self-introduction by new participants Presentation of the day's program and objectives Recap of the previous day: feedback from participants	UNESCO
9:30 - 10:30	Understanding the difference between policy and measures Case study: Gender equality in the media	Charles Vallerand
10:30 - 10:45	Tea or coffee break
10:45 - 12:15	Issues of diversity in the media in Indonesia Content of Indonesia's next QPR	Workshops
12:15 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 14:30	Plenary
14:30 - 15:30	Issues of diversity in the media under the 2005 Convention	Charles Vallerand
15:30 - 15:45	Tea or coffee break
15:45 - 16:30	Measuring media diversity : indicators and data sources	All participants
16:30 -17:00	Next steps	UNESCO
17.00 – 17.15	Gambang Kromong	MoEC