information, the prior acceptance, by the concerned communities, to the use of their cultures, cultural heritage and cultural property;

“protection” means a measure aimed at, adopted or implemented for the promotion, preservation, safeguarding and enhancement of cultures, cultural heritage and expression; and

“safeguarding” means any measure taken by a county, community, social group or individual, aimed at ensuring the viability of the intangible cultural heritage, including the identification, documentation, research, preservation, protection, promotion, enhancement, transmission, particularly through formal and non-formal education, as well as the revitalization of the various aspects of such heritage.

Object and purpose of the Act.

3. The object and purpose of this Act are to—

(a) give effect to Article 11 of the Constitution;

(b) promote all forms of national and cultural expression through literature, the arts, traditional celebrations, science, communication, information, mass media, publications, libraries and other cultural heritage;

(c) ensure that communities receive compensation or royalties for the use of their cultures and cultural heritage; and

(d) provide a framework to guide national cultural development.

Guiding principles.

4. (1) In the performance of functions and exercise of powers under this Act, State organs, State officers, other public officers and any other persons shall—

(a) be guided by the national values and principles set out in Articles 10, 27, 201 and 232 of the Constitution; and

(b) give equal recognition, dignity and respect to all cultures, including cultures of minorities or marginalized peoples.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, cultural activities, expressions and practices shall not be inconsistent with the Bill of Rights set out in Chapter Four of the Constitution.

PART II—MANAGEMENT OF CULTURE

Role of the Cabinet Secretary.

5. (1) The Cabinet Secretary shall be responsible for—

(a) development of national policies and regulations and standards on cultures and cultural heritage and expressions;

(b) promotion of the diverse cultures, cultural heritage and cultural expressions including protection, safeguarding, preservation, conservation and rehabilitation of cultures, cultural heritage and cultural expressions;

(c) monitoring compliance with standards and regulations concerning culture and cultural heritage;

(d) management of national cultural institutions;

(c) prescribing regulations and standards to guide cultural databases and for development of county cultural facilities and activities;

(f) prescribing regulations and standards to guide the development of cultural facilities and activities;

(g) implementing bilateral and multilateral agreements on culture;

(h) promoting national values, social cohesion and national identity; and

(i) performing any other function as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Role of county governments.

6. County governments shall—

(a) promote, protect and manage cultural activities and facilities at the county level in line with the national policy;

(b) promote, protect and manage cultural activities and facilities at the county level;

(c) enact county policies and laws for the promotion of cultural activities and facilities;

(d) promote cultural activities, public entertainment and infrastructure for cultural heritage and cultural expression at the county level; and

(e) develop and manage a county database of cultural activities.

Establishment of cultural database.

7. (1) The Cabinet Secretary, in consultation with county governments, shall establish and maintain a database on culture and heritage including a database of registered cultural practitioners, groups and associations.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary shall, in consultation with county governments, develop a system for collecting and preserving information on culture and cultural heritage.

(3) The Council shall prescribe the standards for compatibility with the national database and data to be submitted by county

| Access to information. | 8. (1) Any person shall have the right to the information held in the national database of culture and cultural heritage:

Provided that it is not information protected by this Act or any other written law.

(2) A person who requires a copy of the information in the database may be given such a copy after the payment of a reasonable fee as may be prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

| Compensation for use of culture and cultural heritage. | 9. (1) The Cabinet Secretary shall, in consultation with relevant stakeholders and county governments, establish mechanisms for the determination and payment of compensation or royalties to communities for the use of the communities’ culture and cultural heritage.

(2) The determination of compensation or royalties shall be guided by, among other things—

(a) the impact of the culture or cultural heritage on the economy of the community;

(b) the economic value of the culture or cultural heritage;

(c) the cultural value of the culture or cultural heritage;

(d) whether or not the culture or cultural heritage shall be used continuously or periodically;

(e) whether or not the culture or cultural heritage will be subject to derivative works and the type of ownership of the derivative works;

(f) the type and amount of investment by a State organ in the culture or cultural heritage;

(g) the effect of the use of the culture or cultural heritage on the environment; and

(h) the potential for large scale use of the culture or cultural heritage.

(3) The share of the royalties or compensation between the two government levels, the communities and individuals shall be prescribed by the Cabinet Secretary in Regulations.

(4) In establishing mechanisms under subsection (1) the Cabinet Secretary shall—

(a) establish a register cultural property;
(b) establish a register of cultural practitioners, groups and associations; and

c) prescribe regulations to combat illicit trafficking of cultural property.

(5) The Cabinet Secretary shall, in consultation with the departments responsible for industrial property and copyright, develop guidelines for the payment of compensation or royalties to the national or county governments, as the case may be, and to communities, social groups and individuals for the use of cultural property, knowledge or heritage.

Exceptions and limitations to compensation for use of culture and cultural heritage.

10. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 9, the mechanisms for compensation for the use of culture and cultural heritage may, in the public interest, exempt from or limit the requirement to compensate for use of a culture or cultural heritage—

(a) where the exemption or limitation does not restrict or impede the normal usage, development, exchange, dissemination or transmission of the culture or cultural heritage by the members of the community according to the community’s norms;

(b) where the exemption or limitation is for the purposes of non-commercial use of the culture or cultural heritage including for teaching, research, exhibition, the reporting of current events and during judicial determination; or

(c) where the exemption or limitation is for the purposes of making a recording or reproduction of the culture or cultural heritage in a public archive or inventory for safeguarding.

(2) A person who intends to use a culture or cultural heritage shall obtain the prior informed consent of the owner or owners of the culture or cultural heritage and acknowledge their ownership of the culture or cultural heritage and the geographical place where the culture or cultural heritage is practiced or occurs.

(3) A person who uses or intends to use a culture or cultural heritage shall do so in a manner that is compatible with fair practice, and is not offensive or derogatory to the owner or owners of the culture or cultural heritage.

11. (1) A person, community or social group whose cultural property has been entered in national database of culture and cultural heritage, and wishes to loan, export, import and transfer such property locally or internationally, shall apply to the Cabinet Secretary in the prescribed form for approval.
(2) In determining an application under this section, the Cabinet Secretary shall have regard to—

(a) the security of the cultural property;
(b) the spiritual, cultural or sentimental value of the cultural property;
(c) the fragility of the cultural property;
(d) the rarity of the cultural property;
(e) the cultural property’s economic value;
(f) whether or not the cultural property is insured;
(g) the loaning period;
(h) whether the cultural property has any prescribed restrictions placed on it; and
(i) international treaties or conventions relating to culture or cultural heritage which Kenya has ratified.

(3) The Cabinet Secretary shall, if he or she approves the loan, export, import or transfer of the cultural property, issue a certificate of authorisation in the form prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

(4) A person shall not export out of Kenya any cultural property which has been unlawfully acquired or recovered.

Application to conduct research.

12. (1) Notwithstanding any approval, permit or license granted under any other written law, a person who desires to conduct research regarding any cultural property that has been entered in the national database of culture and cultural heritage shall apply to the Cabinet Secretary in the prescribed manner, and the application shall be accompanied by such information or documentation as the Cabinet Secretary may prescribe.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary shall consult the owner of a cultural property before the relevant authority makes a determination regarding an application under this section.

Application for registration.

13. (1) A person who wishes to register a property or person as a cultural property or entity, as the case may be, under this Act, shall apply to the county government or the Cabinet Secretary in the prescribed manner:

Provided that an application made to the Cabinet Secretary shall only be done after the property or person, as the case may be, has been registered by a county government.
(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by such information or documentation as may be prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

(3) The county government or the Cabinet Secretary, as the case may be, shall, upon payment of the prescribed fees, register the property or person as cultural property where, after consideration of an application under subsection (1) and after such investigation and enquiry as may be necessary, the county government or the Cabinet Secretary, as the case may be, is satisfied that—

(a) the property in respect of which the application is made—

(i) historically belongs to the community, social group or individual seeking registration;

(ii) is not the subject of controversy regarding ownership;

(iii) complies with identification criteria set by the Cabinet Secretary; or

(iv) is of cultural interest to more than one social group and an agreement has been reached by the interested groups regarding registration;

(b) the person is engaged in cultural development or the arts; and

(c) registration of such property is not contrary to public interest.

(4) The Cabinet Secretary or the county government, as the case may be, shall make regulations to guide the registration process under this section at the national government level or the county government level, as the case may be.

(5) The Cabinet Secretary shall consult the relevant county government before registering a property or a person under this Act.

14. Where the Cabinet Secretary or county government refuses to register a property or institution under section 11, the Cabinet Secretary or county government shall provide the applicant, in writing, with the reasons for such refusal.

15. (1) The Cabinet Secretary or county government may cancel the registration of a cultural property if the Cabinet Secretary or county government is satisfied that—

(a) the holder of a registered cultural property has, in connection with the registration, contravened or failed to comply with a condition relating to the registration;

(b) it is contrary to the public interest that such cultural property to remain registered; or

(c) the applicant gave false or misleading information to obtain registration of the property.

(2) Before the registration of a cultural property is cancelled, the Cabinet Secretary or the county government shall notify in writing the holder of the registered cultural property of the intention to cancel the registration, specifying the grounds for the intended cancellation in the notification, and invite the holder to make representations in respect of the intended cancellation.

16. The register of cultural property and the certificate of registration issued in respect of the registration of a cultural property shall lapse on the cancellation of registration under section 13.

17. The Cabinet Secretary shall develop regulations to determine the criteria for the recognition and promotion of cultural expressions as national expressions.

18. (1) The Cabinet Secretary shall prescribe, by notice in the Gazette, cultural property that shall not be sold or exported.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary shall develop regulations for the promotion and protection of endangered cultural expressions and cultural heritage.

(3) A person who discovers an archaeological heritage shall not interfere with it:

Provided that a county government has permitted that person to disturb that archaeological heritage and the Cabinet Secretary has issued that person with a license.

(4) The Cabinet Secretary and the county government shall not approve any activity or development to be undertaken in an area where there is or might be a cultural heritage if appears that the activity or development shall unreasonably endanger or damage the cultural heritage.

19. (1) A tangible cultural heritage shall be subject to seizure if—

(a) it has been recovered without a valid permit;

(b) it has been stolen, imported or exported without a permit; or

(c) unlawfully transferred to the ownership of another person.

(2) A seized cultural heritage under this Act shall be registered, protected and stabilised.
