Monument

25. (1) The Secretary of State may, on the recommendation of the Centre by notice published in the Gazette, proclaim a monument to be a National Monument.

(2) Where the monument the Centre proposes to recommend for proclamation does not belong to the State, it shall, not later than thirty days before making the recommendation, notify the owner in writing of its proposed recommendation.

(3) The owner of the monument may, on receiving the notice, lodge with the Centre in writing any objection he or she has to the proposed
(4) Where the Centre makes a recommendation to the Secretary of State, it shall submit to the Secretary of State:

(a) proof that the owner of the monument concerned has received notice of the recommendation; and

(b) any objection which the owner of the monument concerned may have lodged against the recommendation.

(5) The decision of the Secretary of State in respect of any objection made to a proposed recommendation shall be final.

26. (1) A person who discovers any ancient monument, relic, ancient working, ethnographical article or monument shall notify the Centre in writing of the discovery.

(2) The Centre, on receiving a notice under subsection (1), has a right to acquire the ownership of the ancient monument, relic ancient, working, ethnographical article or monument so discovered—

(a) on payment to the person who made the discovery of a sum of money to be agreed on as fair and reasonable compensation; or

(b) failing agreement, on payment of such sum of money as may be determined or awarded by a qualified person as the Secretary of State may appoint for that purpose.

(3) If within six months after the receipt of a notice of discovery under subsection (1), the Centre fails to notify the owner of the ancient monument, relic, ancient working, ethnographical article or monument that it intends to exercise its right of acquisition, the right shall be deemed to have lapsed.

27. (1) A person shall not, without the written consent of the Centre, excavate an ancient monument or ancient working.

(2) A person who has the written consent of the Centre shall not excavate an ancient or ancient working contrary to any conditions that may have been imposed in the consent or by regulations made under this Act.

(3) A person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than twenty-five thousand dalasis, and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both the fine and imprisonment.

28. (1) No person shall, without the written consent of the Centre -

(a) alter, destroy or damage; or

(b) remove from its original site, any monument, relic, ancient monument, ancient working or ethnographical article or any part of them.

(2) A person who desires to remove from its original site any national monument, monument, relic, ancient monument or ancient working or any part thereof shall, when applying to the Centre for its consent-

(a) supply the Centre with a photograph or drawing of the national monument, relic, monument, ancient monument, or ancient working or part thereof in question; and

(b) state the exact locality in which it is situated and the place to which, and the purposes for which, he or she desires to remove or export it.

(3) A person who-

(a) contravenes the provisions of this section; or

(b) in an application to the Centre for the consent under this section, makes a statement which is false in a material respect or supplies a drawing or photograph which is false in a material respect, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than twenty-five thousand dalasis, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

29. (1) No person shall deface, damage or destroy any notice or tablet erected by the Centre under section 11(2) (c).

(2) A person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than twenty thousand dalasis, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

30. Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act which has resulted –

(a) in damage to, destruction or removal of any national monument, ancient monument, relic, ancient working or any part of it or any tablet erected by the Centre; or

(b) in damage to or destruction of any ethnographical article or any part of it, the Court may, in addition to any other penalty which it may impose, order him or her to pay such sum as the Court may determine for the purpose of repairing the damage or for the value of any article or thing removed or destroyed.

PART VIII - LICENCES AND PERMITS

31 (1) As from the commencement of this Act, no person shall –

(a) organise, for any commercial purpose, a performance featuring a non-resident artiste;
(b) keep or manage a private, community or specialised museum or art gallery, unless he or she holds a licence issued under or pursuant to this Act for that purpose.

(2) No person who is not a citizen of The Gambia shall carry out research relating to arts or culture unless he or she holds a permit issued by the Centre.

(3) A person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than twenty-five thousand dalasis, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

32. (1) A person who wishes to obtain a licence or permit under this Part shall apply to the Centre in such form as the Centre shall prescribe.

(2) On receipt of an application under this section, the Centre may make such investigations or require such information as may be necessary, for the consideration of the application.

33. (1) After due consideration of an application, the Centre may -

(a) issue to the applicant the licence or permit applied for, with such conditions as it may deem fit; or

(b) refuse to issue the licence or permit, giving reasons for the refusal.
(2) Unless earlier cancelled or revoked, a licence or permit issued under this Act shall remain valid until the thirty-first day of December next following the date of issue and may, thereafter, be renewed from year to year or for such further period or periods as may be specified.

(3) An application for the renewal of a licence or permit shall be made not later than such period as may be prescribed by the Centre before the expiration of the existing licence or permit.

(4) A licence or permit may be renewed, subject to such conditions, as the Centre may deem necessary.

34. A person who, for the purpose of obtaining a licence or permit under this Part, makes a declaration that is false commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than fifteen thousand dalasis, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

35. (1) The Centre may suspend or cancel a licence or permit if the holder of the licence or permit contravenes a provision of this Act or of a condition attached to the licence or permit.

(2) Where the Centre suspends or cancels a licence or permit under subsection (1), it shall notify the holder of the licence or permit accordingly, and he or she shall cease to carry out the activity authorised by the licence or permit immediately on being notified.

(3) A licence or permit that is suspended or cancelled shall be returned to the Centre.
36. (1) A person who is aggrieved by –

(a) the refusal of the Centre to issue or renew a licence or permit; or

(b) the suspension or cancellation of a licence or permit, may, within fourteen days of receipt of the notification of the action complained of, appeal to the Secretary of State.

(2) The appeal shall be in writing stating the grounds of appeal and be accompanied by such other written statements or document as the appellant may wish to submit in support of the appeal.

(3) The Secretary of State shall, within thirty days of receiving the appeal, take a decision, which shall be communicated to the appellant.

PART IX - EXPORT AND OTHER CONTROL OF ETHNOGRAPHICAL ARTICLES

(i) was made or fashioned before the year 1900, or

(ii) is prescribed by regulations made under this Act, as requiring a permit for its exportation.

38. (1) No person shall export an ethnographical article except in accordance with an export permit issued by the Centre.

(2) An application for export permit shall be made to the Centre at least two weeks before the proposed date of export, unless the Centre in its discretion accepts a shorter period.

(3) An application shall contain the name of the ethnographical article, its function, a full description, including its dimensions, its local cost or an estimate of its value, and the date when, the place where, and the person from whom it was obtained.

(4) A person who desires to export from The Gambia an ethnographical article or any part of it shall, when applying to the Centre for permission -
(a) submit the ethnographical article or the part in question for examination by the Centre, with a drawing or photograph of the ethnographical article or part in question; and

(b) state the purposes for which he or she desires to export it.

(5) A person who -

(a) contravenes the provisions of this section; or

(b) in an application to the Centre for the consent under this section, makes a statement which is false in a material respect or supplies a drawing or photograph which is false in a material respect,

commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than twenty-five thousand dalasis, and in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

39. (1) Unless the ethnographical article is delivered to the Director General, and left in his or her charge, the applicant shall state its location and, if it is to be moved, its expected location during the period before the date of the proposed export.
(2) The applicant shall permit and facilitate such access to, and inspection of, the ethnographical article as the Director General may require and shall permit to be affixed or applied to the ethnographical article any seal or identification mark of the Centre.

40. (1) The Director General may, with the prior approval of the Board, prohibit the export of an ethnographical article if he or she considers that the export would not be in the public interest.

(2) The Director General shall give a certificate that an object does not require an export permit if in his or her judgment the object is not an ethnographical article within the meaning of this Part.

41. (1) An export permit shall be in the prescribed form and be to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) No permit shall authorise the removal from The Gambia of any ethnographical article except through a recognised customs port or airport.

(3) A person who is refused an export licence under this Part has a right to appeal to the Secretary of State under section 36.

42. No customs officer shall allow the export of an ethnographical article until the export permit in respect of the ethnographical article has been surrendered to him or her.
Compulsory purchase of ethnographical article

43. (1) Where the Director General is of the opinion that an ethnographical article is likely or intended to be exported, whether lawfully or otherwise, or where an application for an export permit has been made and refused, the Director General may –

(a) require the owner of the ethnographical article or the person who has possession or custody of the ethnographical article to surrender it to the Centre; and

(b) pay for the ethnographical article a price which is assessed by the Board and which is, in the opinion of the Board, the fair market price of the ethnographical article in The Gambia.

(2) The payment for an ethnographical article under this section shall be made to the person who is, in the opinion of the Board, the owner or person otherwise lawfully entitled to receive the payment.

(3) A person required to surrender an ethnographical article under this section who fails to do so commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than twenty-five thousand dalasis, and in default of two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) An application for registration shall be made to the Centre in such form as may be prescribed.
(3) The Centre shall issue a certificate of registration to an artiste or group of artistes registered under this section.

(4) The registration of an artiste or group of artistes shall be valid for two years and may be renewed for further periods of two years at a time.

45. (1) No hotel or restaurant shall engage an artiste or group of artistes unless the artiste or group of artistes is registered under this Act.

(2) A hotel or restaurant which contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than fifty thousand dalasis.

PART XI - ENDOWMENT FUND FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

46. There is hereby established a fund to be known as the Endowment Fund for Arts and Culture, the management and control of which shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, vest in the Centre.

47. The Endowment Fund shall consist of-

(a) moneys appropriated by the National Assembly;

(b) five per cent levy on all audio and video tapes and discs, recorded or blank imported into The Gambia;

(c) gifts, donations and grants received by the Centre for the Endowment Fund;
(d) income from investments of the Endowment Fund;

(e) moneys borrowed on behalf of the Endowment Fund in accordance with section 48; and

(f) other moneys which may vest in or accrue to the Endowment Fund under this Act or otherwise.

48. The Centre may borrow money for the Endowment Fund, on such terms and conditions as the Board may approve, or as may be prescribed by law.

Application of the Endowment Fund

49. The Endowment Fund shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be applied to the promotion, development and support of arts and culture.

Expenditure from the Endowment Fund

50. No expenditure shall be made from the Endowment Fund unless the Board approves it.

51. A report of the Centre's exercise of its power under this Part shall be included in the annual report, which the Centre is required to submit to the Secretary of State.

Accounts and audit

52. (1) The Centre shall cause proper books of accounts and other records to be kept in connection with the Endowment Fund.

(2) The Auditor General shall audit the accounts of the Endowment Fund annually.

Investment of money

53. The Centre may -
(a) invest any money in the Endowment Fund; and

(b) vary and diversify the investments, in such manner as the Board may determine.

PART XII – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

54. (1) Where an offence is committed by a body of persons under this Act –

(a) in the case of a body corporate, other than a partner, every director or secretary of the body corporate shall also be deemed to have committed the offence; and

(b) in the case of a partnership, every partner shall also be deemed to have committed the offence.

(2) A person shall only commit an offence under this section if it is proved that the offence of which he or she is charged was committed with his or her consent or connivance and that he or she did not exercise such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he or she ought to have exercised having regard to the circumstances.

55. A person who contravenes a provision of this Act commits an offence and, where not otherwise provided in this Act, is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than twenty-five thousand dalasis or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.
56. A project that is likely to affect an archaeological resource shall be considered for environmental impact assessment under the National Environment Management Act, 1994.

57. Television and radio services shall promote Gambian arts and culture through their programmes and, accordingly, shall apportion not less than seventy per cent of the total time allocated to music programmes to advancing Gambian music.

58. The Secretary of State may make regulations generally for the better carrying into effect of the provisions of this Act, and in particular for –

(a) regulating policies and procedures for the preservation, promotion and development of Gambian culture;

(b) prescribing the manner in which committees and sub-Committees established by the Board shall function;

(c) prescribing the measures and the manner in which ancient monuments, relics, ancient workings, ethnographical articles and monuments shall be acquired, safeguarded and administered; and

(d) monitoring the implementation of programmes with respect to the protection and standardization of the national languages, the creative arts and indigenous technology, sports and recreation;
(e) facilitating the conduct of its business.

59. (1) The National Council for Arts and Culture Act, 1991 is hereby repealed, and the Council established under it is hereby dissolved.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), all the list of purchases and acquisitions made under the repealed enactment is deemed to have been made under this Act.

(3) As from the commencement of this Act, all the rights, assets, liabilities and obligations of the dissolved Council existing immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be transferred to the Centre established under this Act.

(4) Any action or proceeding in any court, or any judgment, decision or order that was enforceable before or against the dissolved Council immediately before the commencement of this Act may be continued and enforced by or against the Centre established under this Act.

(5) A licence, permit or any other authorisation issued under the repealed enactment shall be deemed to be issued under this Act for the duration of its validity, provided that no licence, permit or authorisation shall be valid under this subsection for more than six months after the commencement of this Act unless it is renewed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
