(4) The Commission may invest in any manner it thinks fit any of its funds which it does not immediately require for the performance of its functions.

22. The financial year of the Commission shall be the period of twelve months ending on the 31st December in each year.

23. The Commission shall cause to be kept proper books of account and other records relating to its accounts.

24. As soon as practicable, but not later than six months after the expiry of each financial year, the Commission shall submit to the Minister a report concerning its activities during that financial year.

25. The report shall include information on the financial affairs of the Commission and there shall be appended thereto— (a) an audited balance sheet; (b) an audited statement of income and expenditure; and (c) such other information as the Minister may require.

26. The Minister shall, not later than seven days after the first sitting of the National Assembly next after the receipt of the report referred to in subsection (1), lay it before the National Assembly.

PART V: CONSERVATION OF HERITAGE

27. (1) Upon the recommendation of the Commission, and if the Minister considers it to be in the national interest that any heritage be conserved, protected or maintained he may, by statutory notice, subject to subsection (2) declare or provisionally declare the heritage or relic to be a national monument.

(2) The Minister shall not make any declaration under subsection (1) in respect of any heritage or relic belonging to a person, other than the Commission, without the consent of that person unless the Minister is satisfied that—
(a) the Commission at least one month before making the recommendation had served upon the owner of, and any person in possession of, the heritage, or relic by post or by delivering personally, a notice in writing advising him of the proposed recommendation and his right to lodge objections with the Commission within one month of the date of service of the notice;
(b) the Commission has submitted to him all objections lodged with it by the owner and the person in possession of that heritage or relic.

28. (1) Whenever under this Act any heritage or relic—
(a) has been declared or provisionally declared to be a national monument;
(b) has been recommended to be declared a national monument or to be part of a national monument; or
(c) is being investigated as to the desirability of it being declared or forming a part of a national monument; the Commission or any person authorised by it in writing, either generally or for any particular purpose, may, for the purpose of surveying, creating markers, drawing up a diagram of that area of land—
(i) enter at all reasonable hours upon any land with such persons, vehicles, appliances, instruments and materials as are necessary for such survey;
(ii) break up the surface of any part of such land to facilitate the removal of any heritage or relic;
(iii) take and carry away any heritage or relic found thereon;
(iv) fix any post, stone mark or object to be used in the survey of any such land;
(v) dig up any ground for the purpose of fixing any such post, stone, mark or object; and
(vi) enter into or upon any land through which it may be necessary to pass for the purpose of surveying, creating markers or drawing up diagrams.

(2) When exercising the powers conferred under subsection (1) it shall not be lawful to fix any object, post, stone or mark within any walled or fenced garden or orchard without the consent of the owners or occupiers thereof.

(3) Notice in writing of the intention to exercise any of the powers conferred by this section shall be given in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the area where the land is situated at least fourteen days before the exercise of the powers unless such land is un-alienated state land.

(4) As little damage and inconvenience as possible shall be caused by the exercise of any of the powers conferred by this section.

(5) Before abandoning any land all excavations opened shall be filled back.

(6) The Commission or any other person authorised by it shall not be liable for anything done, in good faith in the performance of any function under this section.

29. Whenever any land upon or under which a heritage is situated has been declared or provisionally declared to be, or to form part of, a national monument the Commission shall furnish the Registrar with a copy of the statutory notice made under section twenty-seven together with the particulars of the survey undertaken and a diagram of the area of land.

30. (1) The Registrar shall note in any manner he thinks fit in any record maintained by the Registrar and upon any Certificate of Title or Provisional Certificate of Title particulars of any declaration made in a statutory notice that has been lodged in his office which affects the land referred to or comprised in the record maintained by the Registrar, in any Certificate of Title or Provisional Certificate of Title.

(2) Where a statutory notice made under section twenty-seven is revoked or amended the Commission shall lodge with the Registrar a copy of the statutory notice and the Registrar shall note the particulars contained in the notice on any relevant record maintained by the Registrar, or on any Certificate of Title or Provisional Certificate of Title.

31. (1) The Commission, except with the written approval of the Minister, shall not sublet, mortgage, charge, sell, transfer, assign or in any manner whatsoever encumber, or part with the possession of, any national monument or relic.

(2) Any person who owns any land that is the subject of any statutory notice made under section twenty-seven and who wishes to subdivide, sell, transfer, assign, sublet, mortgage, charge or in any manner whatsoever encumber, or part with the possession of, that land, shall forthwith inform the Commission of the name and address of the person in whose favour the transaction is intended to be made.

32. If the Commission considers an object to be of historical, scientific, anthropological, aesthetic or cultural value the Minister, on the recommendation of the Commission may, by statutory notice, declare the object to be a relic notwithstanding that the object may not have been made or used in Zambia before 1st January, 1924.

33. Subject to section forty-one, no person shall, without the written consent of the Commission-

(a) alter, remove, destroy, damage, excavate or export as the case may be, from Zambia, any ancient heritage or relic or part of it; or

(b) disfigure, destroy, remove, alter or damage any national monument, memorial tablet, plaque, seal or sign erected or affixed by the Commission.

34. (1) Any person who desires to export from Zambia any ancient heritage or relic or any part thereof shall apply to the Commission for an export permit.

(2) The applicant shall–

(a) supply the Commission with a drawing showing the site where the item is located and shall state the exact locality in which it is situated and the place to which he desires to export it; and

(b) define the type of object, its age, size and what material it is made of.

35. (1) Any person who intends to destroy, demolish, alter or remove from its original site any national monument, relic or ancient heritage shall apply to the Commission for permission.

(2) The applicant shall–

(a) state the nature and extent of the intended alteration, removal, destruction or demolition and the locality of the area;

(b) supply diagrams or sketch plans and any other relevant information; and
(c) define the type of object, its age, where possible, size and what material it is made of.

36. Section thirty-five shall not apply in respect of the alteration or demolition of a property which is immediately necessary—
   (a) in the interests of the safety of persons in or about the property; or
   (b) to avoid any reasonable risk of substantial damage being caused by the property to any other property in its vicinity.

37. (1) Any person who desires to excavate any ancient heritage or collect relics shall apply to the Commission for a permit to excavate or collect.

   (2) The applicant shall give details of—
      (a) the project;
      (b) the exact location of the area;
      (c) the problems, scope and objectives of the investigation or collection; and
      (d) any other relevant information.

38. A permit issued under section thirty-seven shall be subject to the following conditions:
   (a) the holder shall within the time specified in the permit, furnish to the Commission a progress report on the work done in such detail as the Commission may require;
   (b) the holder of a permit, after completion of the excavation, shall restore the site to its normal condition in so far as it is reasonable to do so unless the Commission otherwise authorises;
   (c) the holder shall deliver to the Commission possession of all relics or other objects recovered while excavating pursuant to the permit; and
   (d) any other conditions the Commission may prescribe according to the circumstances.

39. A permit issued under section thirty-seven authorises the holder to do some or all of those acts specified in the application, at such time or within such period and subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions or directions as may be specified by the Commission.

40. (1) No person shall excavate, collect or export, as the case may be, any ancient heritage, any relic or part thereof, or alter, destroy, damage or remove from its original site any ancient heritage, national monument or relic contrary to sections thirty-three to thirty-nine.

   (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten thousand kwacha, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding four years, or to both.

   (3) The Court in addition to any fine or imprisonment may order that person—
      (a) to pay to the Commission such sum as the court may determine for the repair of any damage caused to, or for the value of, anything specified in subsection (1); or
      (b) in the case of any thing specified in subsection (1) which has been removed and which is still in the possession of that person, to restore such thing to the Commission.

41. Nothing in sections thirty-three to thirty-seven, inclusive, shall be construed as prohibiting any person in the normal course of mining, engineering or agricultural operations from doing any act which would otherwise be an offence under those sections if that person—
(a) was the owner of land acquired or held under customary law; or
(b) was the holder of a valid mining licence or certificate of title;
and the ancient heritage or relic affected had not been known or the heritage had not been declared to be a national monument before the performance of that act.

42. Any person, who discovers what appears to be an ancient heritage or relic shall—
(a) report his discovery to the Commission within fourteen days;
(b) suspend his operations in the immediate vicinity of his discovery until thirty days after the delivery of his report, unless the Commission authorises their continuance; and
(c) deliver to the Commission as soon as practicable, or request the Commission to examine and remove, any object which is, or appears to be, a relic.

43. Upon receipt of a report under section forty-two the Commission may—
(a) examine and remove any relic;
(b) allow the person to continue his activities;
(c) order suspension of the operations not in excess of thirty days to carry out an environmental impact assessment or archaeological survey or recovery analysis of the discovery areas; or
(d) order the engineering, mining or agricultural project to pay for the costs of the assessment, survey, or analysis.

44. If the Commission does not exercise any of its powers under section forty-three the person may resume his operations thirty days after delivery of his report.

45. Any relic whose ownership cannot be reasonably determined shall be deemed to belong to the Commission.

46. Where a relic is not owned by any person and the Commission removes the relic from land, the compensation to be paid to the person occupying the land shall only be for the temporary loss of use of the land or any damage caused during the time required by the Commission to remove the relic.

47. (1) Where a relic is owned by a person, the Commission shall have a right or option to acquire the ownership of the relic so discovered upon payment to the owner of a sum of money to be agreed upon as fair and reasonable compensation, or failing agreement, by reference to two arbitrators in accordance with the Arbitration Act.

(2) If within six months after receipt of the first notice of any discovery in terms of section forty-two the Commission has failed to notify the owner of such ancient heritage or relic that it intends to exercise its option, such option shall be deemed to have lapsed.

48. Where any heritage is located on land held by any Negoi.ions person, the Commission may negotiate with the holder of the for land to—
(a) arrange for preservation, restoration, rehabilitation and reconstruction of the heritage;
(b) arrange times, terms, and conditions for admission of the public to the site;
(c) arrange for supervision, maintenance and protection of the site;
(d) arrange for a lease of the site, access to it, and the terms and conditions of any right of entry;
(e) acquire the land or any part of it on such terms and conditions as the parties may agree upon; or
(f) arrange any other matter connected with the conservation, use and enjoyment of the heritage.

49. (1) The Minister, upon the recommendation of the Regulations Commission, may by statutory instrument make regulations—
   (a) regulating the access of the public to any heritage which is the property of the Commission or which by agreement with the owner is under its control;
   (b) fixing fees payable to the Commission for admission to any heritage;
   (c) safe guarding any heritage, national monument, tablet, or relic from disfigurement, alteration, destruction, unauthorised export or removal;
   (d) regulating the excavation of any ancient heritage and the removal export or collection of any relic;
   (e) regulating the conditions of use by any person of any area of land which has been declared to be a national monument and which is under the control of the Commission;
   (f) regulating the conditions for the erection of any building or structure on any area of land declared to be a national monument; or
   (g) prohibiting or regulating any specified acts in or in respect of any heritage.

(2) Any regulation may prescribe fines not exceeding ten thousand kwacha for any contravention of, or non-compliance with the regulations.

50. Any Government Notices, Declarations by the Minister, or Statutory Instruments which declares any heritage to be a national monument under the Natural and Historical Monuments and Relics Act shall continue in full force and effect, as though made pursuant to section twenty-seven of this Act.

51. The Natural and Historical Monuments and Relics Act is hereby repealed.
